Exterior

Georgian sandstone exterior, surrounded by formal gardens and an extensive golf course. Rolling Kent countryside.

The surrounding grounds are approximately six acres in area, including a rose garden that was once a tennis court, a walled garden that once provided much of the food for the household, a parterre, and many other lovely areas and walks. Hidden away is an atmospheric sunken garden that was designed and built by a famous Victorian firm of garden designers in the 1860s.

The Estate is situated in a picturesque village in Kent, close to the border with East Sussex, and just 40 miles from London.
