Interior

My property is a unique detached home over 2 floors behind electric gates in East London. It features one major-sized room [barn converted] as per photo, plus bathroom with large hot-tub Jacuzzi. You will note the beams and spiral staircase. It currently houses a recording studio upstairs, although I assume the venue will be used by a property company for downstairs only. .

There are currently adaptations being made where a 60" TV is being wall mounted over new fireplace, plus a piano in place of organ by door.

The venue enjoys full and easy access

Exterior

This is a detached house within a gated small community overlooking fields. It has room for parking for multiple vehicles.
