

LON6363 Art Deco Cinema In London For Filming

Art Deco cinema with stalls & circle created in 1937 within the shell of an Edwardian cinema for filming and video shoots

LON6363

Art Deco Cinema In London For Filming

Art Deco cinema with stalls & circle created in 1937 within the shell of an Edwardian cinema for filming and video shoots

Location: East London, London, United Kingdom

Within the M25: Yes

Categories: Theatres, Cinemas & Concert Halls

Features:

Interior

Art Deco cinema with stalls & circle created in 1937 within the shell of an Edwardian cinema, retaining many original features. In 2017 a new auditorium was created in the basement space. There is a large foyer with kiosk/ bar and seating area. The cinema is a fairly quiet space with subdued lighting, there is plenty of seating throughout the building, there is a good sized projection room, corridors and offices

