Interior

Family home in Camden with eclectic retro interior styling. The house is owned by artists with a distinct style. All artworks can be moved if required though.

The house was built in 1967 in the Modernist style. The era is important as the interior hasn't really been updated since the late 1960's, so it has a Hippy / Counter-culture / Artistic / Free-love vibe, as it full to bursting with paintings, glassware and erotic sculpture, together with Shag-pile carpets, Scandinavian-style Pine fittings, unique bespoke hand-made cupboards and Batik.

The house is entirely unique, inside and out, as indicated by it's entry on the website
