

SE2390 Beautiful Balconied Victorian Grand Hall For Filming And Events

Fabulous Victorian building, originally built to be a School Hall, possessing a striking ground floor Hall. The building is steeped in history and benefits from high ornate ceilings, magnificent doors, original John Broadwood Grand Piano and beautiful period features.

SE2390

Beautiful Balconied Victorian Grand Hall For Filming And Events

Fabulous Victorian building, originally built to be a School Hall, possessing a striking ground floor Hall. The building is steeped in history and benefits from high ornate ceilings, magnificent doors, original John Broadwood Grand Piano and beautiful period features.

Location: Bedfordshire, United Kingdom

Within the M25: No

Categories: Event Venues (including Race Courses) | Libraries & Town Halls | Historic Buildings & Ruins

Features:

Exterior Features

- Courtyard

Facilities

- Domestic Power
- Fire Hydrant (close by)
- Internet Access
- Mains Water
- Toilets

Floors

- Real Wood Floor

Interior Features

- Concrete Pillars

Parking

- On Street Parking
- Secure Parking

Rooms

- Boardroom
- Dining Room
- Gym
- Library
- Meeting/Board Room

Views

- City Scape View

Walls & Windows

- Exposed Beams
- Large Windows

Interior

Victorian interior with period features and housing of an original piano and organ.

Exterior

Beautiful Victorian exterior with large windows and concrete pillars. The building is set on a large campus set off from the main road in the heart of Bedford town centre. Most of the surrounding buildings boast the same architecture and there is an old church on the same campus. There is ample parking on site.

