Interior

This lovely large and modern studio space offers versatile filming opportunities. The owners live above which is not available. The large room has large doors out to the patio area and a piano at the other end of the room. When you go through past the staircase there is a spacious kitchenette area which also has french doors out to a larger patio area.

Exterior

This studio is part of three separate properties at the same location. Across the yard you will also find N7191 which is a farmhouse with four bedrooms and N7190 which is a small two story barn with a workshop on the ground floor.
