Interior

This converted 18th century home features the original building with wooden floorboards, exposed beams and a beach house feel. It is decorated in neutral colours and brings in lots of light through the different windows. There is a large bay window in the front living room, and the back extension has floor to ceiling glass doors. The kitchen is stripped back and features welsh dressers, consoles and units rather than your standard kitchen set up. There is a large table in the kitchen. Upstairs you have the double bedrooms and bathrooms.

Exterior

The original building is painted black and the modern but in keeping extension is cladded black. The back garden features tree and a lovely patio area leading from the back living room. There is a small gated driveway out the front.
