This is a dynamic, creative space available for hire: Art exhibitions, Press Launch Parties, Client Functions, Fashion Events, Business Workshops, Pop-Up-Retail, Film/Commercial Shoots, Drinks Receptions, Music Events and more. The studios have been designed and created as a versatile and unique event space for hire, however is also well known for being East London's leading short term gallery rental space for the international art community. The three and a half thousand square foot venue, minutes from both Liverpool Street and Old Street is split over two floors and is fully fitted with all your gallery and event requirements. The studios are run by an event management team with over twenty years experience in the industry. As an event space, these studios act as a unique setting for any event from fashion shows to client functions. The studios are truly dynamic; clients can choose from using the space simply on a dry hire basis, or have the option of employing our team of event managers to totally transform the venue according to your event requirements/theme. With close ties to the art world, we pride ourselves on being able to display the latest in contemporary & urban art which not only provides visually stunning event settings but interesting talking points with clients.
