Interior

Bright and airy cafe space. A cosy environment with a "shabby chic" atmosphere with living space sufficient to accommodate 30 people. The space contains a soft industrial feel, white washed walls and comfy seats along with quirky wallpaper.

Exterior

Formerly a pet shop, the heritage listed frontage of the shop which still advertises 'Talking parrots' and 'monkeys' has been retained. Opened in 1918, 'Palmer's' pet shop sold exotic birds and even chimpanzees. Charlie Chaplin bought two Abyssinian kittens here and Winston Churchill famously bought his cat here.
