One of the landmark theatres in the West End, is about to undergo a multi-million pound refurbishment to complete in November 2017, following which there will be a gap of 12 weeks until early February before the new show comes in. It is a 1,200 seater venue over three tiers (stalls, dress circle and grand circle), with the auditorium, dressing room block, bars, foyer and other front of house areas being fully refurbished over the next few months.

Access to the location through the stage door and loading bays would facilitate any get-ins, and any filming units could have use of areas not being used (e.g. the dressing room block, bar areas, etc) for standbys, holding areas, make-up, etc as necessary.
