Interior

Described as a magical building and would suit filming where a small, intimate church is needed this quaint little Church also offers filmmakers and photographers a friendly environment in which to go about their work. Images show the interior of the Church in addition to the primary and overflow graveyards. This location possesses a churchyard directly adjacent to the Church, and of the additioanl graveyard 100 yards away. There is a public lane ( image also enclosed ) connecting the two, Â which could be used for smallish trucks / vans etc. As mentioned, the M4 is quite near, and most days there is the distant sound of traffic. There is power in the building, toilets next door, and ample parking if needed.
