

LON6477 Contemporary Detached Home In London For Filming

The house benefits from an abundance of natural light, with spacious corridors and natural, earthy tones creating a serene atmosphere throughout.

LON6477

Contemporary Detached Home In London For Filming

The house benefits from an abundance of natural light, with spacious corridors and natural, earthy tones creating a serene atmosphere throughout.

Location: North London, London, United Kingdom

Within the M25: Yes

Categories: Detached & Executive Houses | Family Modern

Features:

Interior

This stunning detached house has been recently renovated to create a contemporary and elegant home that blends minimalist design with stylish details. The house benefits from an abundance of natural light, with spacious corridors and natural, earthy tones creating a serene atmosphere throughout. The south-facing kitchen is a highlight, featuring a large open-plan layout with a dining table and sofa area. The spacious master suite is a calming retreat, complete with a huge walk-in wardrobe and an elegant bathroom adorned in natural tones. The house also benefits from two children's bedrooms, an office and large loft.

Exterior

There is a large driveway which can be used for filming

