Interior

The hamlet comprises a cluster of 16th century barns that surround a beautiful walled garden. These buildings look out onto fields filled with cows.

The land extends to seven acres so has plenty of room for parking, or filming in very peaceful and quiet surroundings. Having no close neighbours or traffic noise to disturb filming.

Main Barn

The main barn conversion is very large (approx. 7000sqft), and open plan, so it makes an ideal property for filming.

- The Living room is connected to the dining room at the corner of the L-shaped space, with the beautifully fitted kitchen (with island which incorporates a gas hob) forming the foot of the L. All of these spaces are huge, light and with space for crews to manoeuvre.
- Upstairs 4 bedrooms and a study can be accessed via 2 staircases. Again the rooms are huge, and with 3 contemporary bathrooms to choose from, offer a broad scope of options for photo shoots or filming.

Exterior

- childrens play area
- climbing frame
- fields of long grass
- small coppice
- large driveway with private parking
- summer house
