Interior

This Arts & Crafts property is split across two levels. Downstairs you will find a smaller living room with a round bay window over looking the water. There is a large kitchen diner, with cream units and a large dining table. There is another living room with a beautiful period fireplace and a further dining table in the room. Upstairs you will find several double bedrooms, some of which include a further single bed. One room has a balcony with stunning views over the water. There are 2.5 bathrooms with both baths and showers. There are period features throughout this property.

Exterior

This house sits in an elevated position on the coast offering lovely views from the patio across the water. There is also a large lawn and mature plants across the plot.
