

SE4542 Detached Country Home For Filming

Large detached country home with lots of period features

SE4542

Detached Country Home For Filming

Large detached country home with lots of period features

Location: Hertfordshire, United Kingdom

Within the M25: No

Categories: Detached & Executive Houses | Family Modern

Features:

Interior

The elegant sitting room has recently been refurbished and features ornate ceiling coving, decorative bespoke window bars, new modern furniture and a piano. This room leads directly onto the conservatory, with fabulous countryside views. The dining room offers a wealth of character with exposed wooden beams and decorative bespoke window bars. A central focal point to this room is a feature wood carved fireplace that incorporates a log burner and decorative brick surround. The country-style kitchen/breakfast room is a lovely room with a traditional stable door leading onto the terrace. There are lots of original features including ceiling beams, stained glass window and a fully working Aga set within a terracotta fireplace. The first floor comprises of five/six bedrooms, with a wonderful balcony overlooking the rear and five bathrooms. The games room offers beautiful original features including wall panelling, an open fire place, window seat and stained glass detailing to the windows.

Exterior

The home is on a plot of 110ft x 110ft. There are large bifold doors leading to the secluded terrace and private garden . Outside, the property benefits from wonderful mature gardens with terracing to the rear. There is ample private off road parking to the front.

