Interior

Large four bedroomed family home in neutral colours available for filming. There is a large modern kitchen with an island, which has an electric/induction hob. The units are a light neutral colour and the room is bright due to the dual aspect window.

Exterior

The garden has a raised deck with several seating and dining areas. A section of this deck is covered by a pergola. There is also a large Astro turf lawn that stretches down the side of the home. A large driveway at the front offers off street parking and filming opportunities.
