Interior

This four bedroom home has lots of original features and is filled with lots of light. Downstairs there are two reception rooms. The front room has sash windows and original wooden storage features and stained glass windows. The second room has sash windows, cast iron fireplace and original wooden floorboards that continue through the hallway. Doen the hall you will find a large kitchen with black wooden units, a union flag splash back and is also filled with light. This leads to a lounge and dining space with bi fold doors, french doors and sash windows. Upstairs there are four bedrooms and two modern bathrooms with showers and baths.

Exterior

At the front of this property there is a driveway big enough for 3 to 4 cars. There is a small patio at the side of the house which you can reach from the french doors. There is then a large lawn that stretches the length of the garden, with a patio area at the very bottom of the garden.
