Features:

Interior

Former 18th century nunnery, the manor house covers about two acres of ground and is divided into private and communal areas. Much of the interior has been altered and improved since the community purchased it. Many facilities are shared - these include a large kitchen/dining area, sitting room, sewing room, ballroom, library, washrooms, showers, and laundry room.

Exterior

The manor house is set on about 65 acres, which is farmed organically. We have vegetable gardens, orchards, woodlands, soft fruit patches, a large lawn and play area, plus pastures and arable farmland.
