

NW6877 Former Inn With Panoramic Views Across The Peak District For Filming

Its rugged stone exterior, traditional architecture, and remote setting give it a timeless quality, perfect for scenes requiring a wild, atmospheric backdrop. Surrounded by dramatic open moorland and winding roads.

NW6877

Former Inn With Panoramic Views Across The Peak District For Filming

Its rugged stone exterior, traditional architecture, and remote setting give it a timeless quality, perfect for scenes requiring a wild, atmospheric backdrop. Surrounded by dramatic open moorland and winding roads.

Location: Cheshire, United Kingdom

Within the M25: No

Categories:

Features:

Exterior

former inn with panoramic views across the Peak District. Its rugged stone exterior, traditional architecture, and remote setting give it a timeless quality, perfect for scenes requiring a wild, atmospheric backdrop. Surrounded by dramatic open moorland and winding roads, it offers a sense of isolation, history, and raw natural beauty in all seasons.

