Interior

Formerly a Victorian Stables and Coach House dating back to the 1850s, now fully modernised the property but being sympathetic to its past. The kitchen still retains the original corn shute, saddle racks and the tools for mucking out the horses. The lounge was originally the coach house and still retains the A frame beams. The home has a kitchen diner, lounge and sun room. There are 3 large bedrooms and 3 bathrooms (one is en-suite to the main bedroom).

Exterior

The plot sits in 0.25 acre. The lower Victorian courtyard garden has a high degree of privacy. The entrance to the property is through large black swan gates. There are steps to a mezzanine level which in turn lead to a large mature lawned garden with a summerhouse and well stocked borders.
