Interior

This townhouse is split across four levels. The ground floor features a large kitchen diner that leads you to a small canal side garden through glazed doors. The kitchen features light coloured units, an island and a large dining table. Before going upstairs you will find a small WC. The whole house is decorated in neutral colours and has minimal furnishings making it versatile for filming opportunities.

Upstairs there are large double bedrooms, one of which is a master with en-suite bathroom. There is another shower room and on the top floor a sun room with double glazed doors leading out to a large terrace.

Exterior

There are two outdoor spaces overlooking the canal just feet away from the property. Downstairs you have a small gated garden and on the top floor a large roof terrace leading off a sun room.
