Interior

This Victorian terraced house is split over four levels. You enter at street level and have a lovely living room , a modern but in keeping cream glass wall from the hallway to the kitchen diner. The kitchen has lovely green cabinets and there is a bay window and a fireplace in the dining space. Downstairs in the basement there is a home office/ study and a playroom. On the two upper floors you will find the bedrooms and bathrooms. There are lovely traditional double rooms as well as childrens bedrooms.

Exterior

There is a lovely small patio garden out the back via the large living room glass doors.
