Interior

The house is a beautifully preserved Georgian townhouse split over four storeys.

blends period charm with modern touches, offering a variety of textures, tones, and moods for creative projects. Original features such as sash windows, hardwood floors, high ceilings, fanlight above the front door, marble and stone fireplaces, kitchen dresser, original range cooker and wrought iron balcony/canopy offer classic Georgian character.

Very little 'modernisation' work has been done to the house in recent decades and original character has been preserved.

The house has many items of interest which can serve as a versatile and intriguing backdrop for your shoot such as original artworks, folk-art furniture, antiques, mirrors, contemporary design pieces and natural history curiosities.

Multiple Rooms Across Four Levels - Ideal for varied looks and camera setups

Natural Light - Large georgian sash windows throughout for beautifully diffused daylight. South facing to the front.

Period Details - Original fireplaces, wooden floorboards, shutters, balcony, fan light etc.

Designer Interiors - A mix of vintage and contemporary furniture, art, curiosities, rugs and objects. We are happy to accommodate movement of furniture/pictures to suit your needs.

Exterior

Private Garden - urban garden with mature plants, rose bushes, wisteria, terracotta pots, brick walls, outdoor seating and york stone flagstones for outdoor scenes
