Interior

The home has four large bedrooms with many period features including an impressive staircase. There is a cellar with about 5 little rooms including a wine cellar.

Exterior

Significant amount of land/large driveway available for parking. A gravel driveway enters the property, it sweeps across the front of the house to the attached double garage. The gardens are predominantly walled, extremely well screened by evergreen trees, including yew and banks of tall rhododendrons and azaleas, through which are walk ways. There are sweeping lawns and a particularly fine cedar tree.
