Interior

The rooms inside are stunning. Gilded and painted, the Ballroom looks out through floor length windows to the lake beyond. The huge mirrors on all four walls reflect the light, making it a very impressive and spacious room.

The Drawing Room is unique in its decoration, with beautifully hand painted walls and finely gilded ceiling. The Hall and Library are equally lovely, the Hall having hand painted trompe l'oeil ceiling and walls.

Exterior

A stunning privately owned stately home. It offers all the grace and elegance of a fine country house. The house stands in beautiful secluded grounds bordering a river and yet is conveniently situated, 10 minutes from Junction 9 of the M3 and just over one hour from London.

This Georgian manor with a classical portico of pillars surmounted by three graceful statues. The house faces west overlooking sweeping lawns to the lake. The lime tree avenue leads down to the side of the house. On the south side there are two unique iron conservatories flank a pillared orangery.
