Interior

5 bedroom detached Victorian villa set in its own private garden in a leafy area close to Glasgow city centre, easily accessible from the motorway network.

Period features include fireplaces, stained glass windows, cornicing.

Wooden floors throughout, with the exception of the attic conversion.

Furniture and pictures can be generally be moved between the rooms to create the desired effect, with the exception of the grand piano (would require specialist movers)

Private gravelled driveway with double garage, both available for use.

Pool room

Music room with grand piano

Mature garden with different sections, including patio

Airy converted kitchen with vaulted roof and velux windows

Small gym to rear of garage, with treadmill and other sports equipment

Exterior

Conservation area, so mature trees line the streets, majority of adjacent properties are also Victorian villas.

Detached Victorian house built in 1890, blond sandstone with tiled roof. Two parts to the house, the smaller part being the kitchen which was converted from smaller rooms and is not visible from the front of the house.

Detached double garage, equipped with woodworking equipment and workbenches.

Small gym to rear of garage.

Mature gardens with trees, shrubs, flower beds, vegetable plot, gravel driveway..
