Interior

One bedroom, one bathroom. The original timber framed and corrugated iron building totalling 75 m2 has been recently sympathetically restored. The interior reveals a beautifully designed living space contrasting vintage industrial with contemporary modern design. You come in through a small porch where you can hang coats, into the main space which is double height with large A framed ceiling. This accommodates open plan living with fully equipped kitchen, a very large dining area and a cosy nook at the far end with a large sofa and flat screen digital TV. As is the vintage and industrial design and fittings with accents of copper. The original wooden floor has been painted an off white. The bedroom has a king size blue wrought iron canopy bed, mustard yellow linen blinds and seagrass flooring. A cozy room yet with ample space and quirky lighting. The bathroom is equipped with a reclaimed copper shower. There is a heated towel rail too, loo and an original vintage basin.
