These filming locations are spread across the estate in and around Derbyshire's Peak District, in the heart of the UK, with good transport links by road, rail and air. We have excellent facilities for film productions of all sizes including extensive parking, in-house catering, a team who understand what film companies require, and qualified tradesman on site. The estate offers a wide range of accommodation, from fine hotels to self-catering accommodation. The Estate has hosted a variety of filming over the last few years, ranging from factual documentaries to feature films.
