Interior

The property is a wing in an imposing Victorian property retaining features typical of the era with its high moulded ceilings, deep skirting and fine panel doors.

The house is approached via a handsome gabled entrance porch with a substantial front door opening to a part vaulted entrance hall with a part mosaic tiled/part woodblock floor with an arched oak door accessing the re-fitted cloakroom.

The elegant south and west facing drawing room has a fine feature open fireplace with a marble slip and hearth with its turreted end currently being used as a dining area.

Upstairs there are 3 bedrooms on the 1st floor, the master being the most beautiful too with its commanding turret and high ceilings.

A further two small rooms and a period family bathroom with stain glass window. Up the windy stairs to another room again with turret, exposed beams and wonderful views.

Exterior

Late Victorian style Manor House converted into three. We have the turreted part of the house, with its impressive large tall ceiling rooms. The outside has beautiful sand stone surrounds to all the sash windows, a large and,impressive doorway, South facing property. Located in a beautiful quaint village with its typical English Green and wonderful characteristic country pub.
