Interior

This large Victorian detached double-fronted house combines a shabby-chic, sparse bohemian interior with 1960 + 70's inspired features. The property has particularly high ceilings and enormous windows throughout. The spacious stainless-steel and teak kitchen is knocked through to the dining area with raw brick and limestone walls, black floor boards and hard-wood skirting. The hallways and stairs are 1970's-come-Scandinavian inspired wood-clad, with an original Victorian tiled floor. Large balcony, a sky-lit Moroccan Zellige tiled shower. 4 bedrooms

Exterior

300sqm house + 300sqm back garden. Ground floor terrace, a double driveway at the front and large London garden.
