Interior

This exceptional four-storey luxury residence offers an impressive collection of high-end interiors designed to provide maximum visual impact for film, television, commercial and photography productions.

The property combines grand proportions with contemporary styling, featuring expansive living and entertaining spaces, elegant architectural detailing and premium finishes throughout. A striking home cinema provides a ready-made backdrop for luxury lifestyle productions, while multiple reception areas, designer kitchens and beautifully appointed bedrooms offer a wide variety of filming environments within a single location.

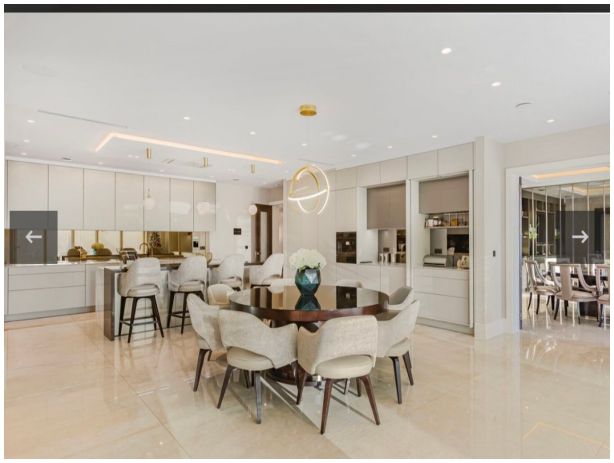
Large windows and open-plan layouts allow abundant natural light to flow throughout the home, creating versatile shooting conditions for both stills and moving image productions. The property's luxurious aesthetic makes it ideal for high-end commercials, fashion campaigns, television dramas, music videos, influencer content and editorial shoots.

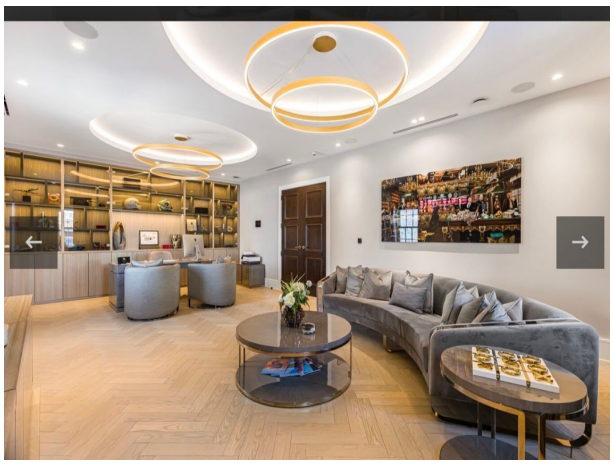
With multiple floors offering distinct looks and perspectives, production teams can achieve a variety of visual styles without leaving the location, making it an efficient and highly adaptable filming environment.

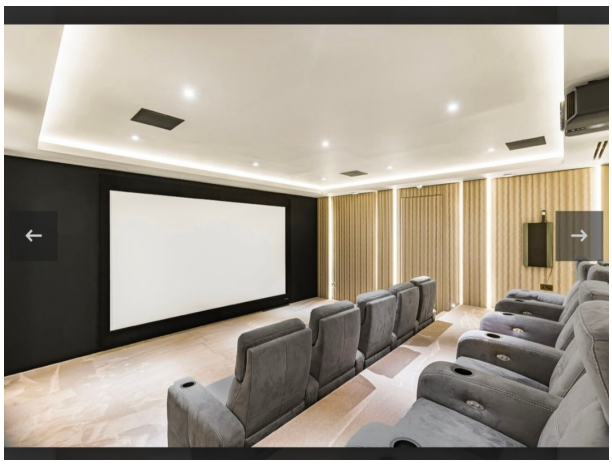
Exterior

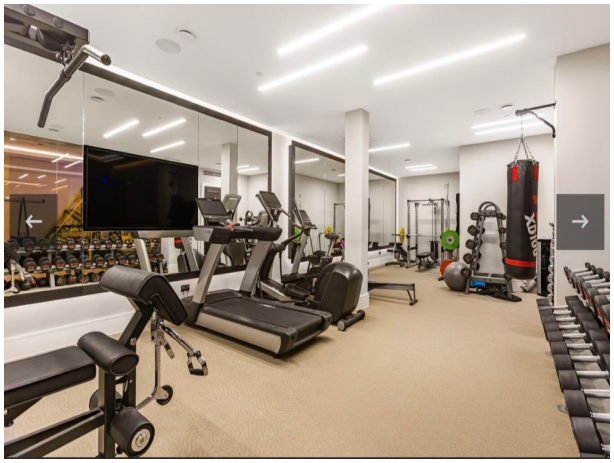
The exterior of this impressive residence delivers a true luxury lifestyle setting, featuring beautifully maintained outdoor spaces and stunning swimming pool areas that provide a cinematic backdrop for a wide range of productions.

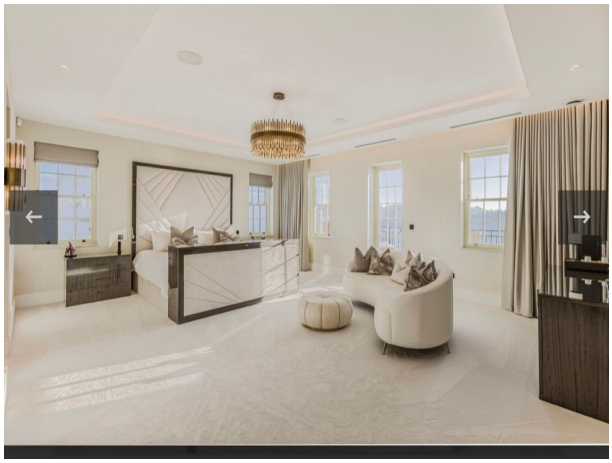
The property offers extensive grounds with multiple outdoor filming opportunities, combining contemporary architecture with landscaped surroundings. The swimming pools create a resort-style atmosphere rarely found in private residential locations, making the property particularly suitable for luxury brand campaigns, fashion shoots, music videos and premium television productions.

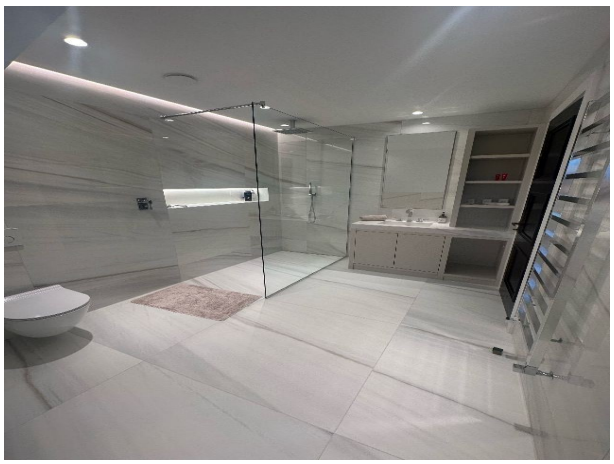
Generous outdoor areas provide space for equipment, crew operations and multiple camera positions, while the scale of the property allows for a variety of establishing shots and lifestyle scenes. The combination of luxury architecture, leisure facilities and landscaped grounds creates a versatile setting capable of representing both UK and international locations.


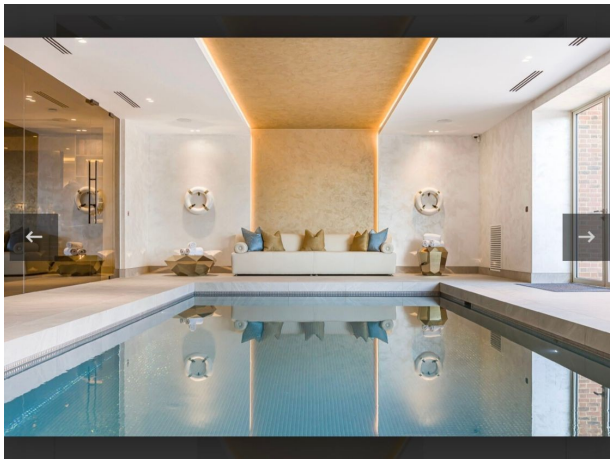


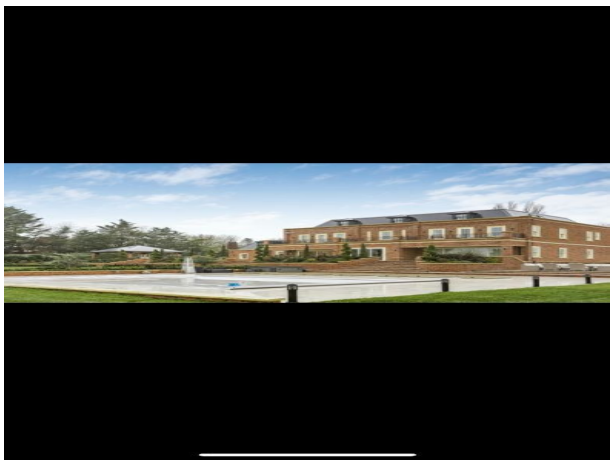












Suitable for feature films, television productions, commercials, branded content, editorial photography and high-end social media campaigns.
