Interior

The house is a combination of Georgian panelled rooms (decorated to the period) with panelled walls, Victorian parts with vaulted ceiling and traditional chandeliers and contemporary parts with recessed led lighting. It has 2 kitchens, 6 bedrooms and 5 reception rooms including 3 rooms with multiple french doors into rear garden. Rooms vary from large open plan to smaller parlour style rooms.

Exterior

A 2 storey brick with slate roof with traditional original dormer attic floor and basement level - detached house in central London built 1740. To the rear we are Victorian and Georgian with a large mature private garden surrounded by mature trees, with lawn , dining and paths. There is also a separate side entrance to the front.
