Interior

This is a 1000sqft, live-work, contemporary(aprox 15 years old), New York-style loft apartment.

Its L-shaped, open-plan live/work space is flooded with natural light and includes a recording studio/office, kitchen (modern grey units/stainless steel and red feature wall)and seating and dining zones.

The furniture is a mix of cool contemporary and 50/60s/70s retro.

The white walls are decorated with the owner's own paintings, digital artworks and photos.

The bedrooms have feature walls of etched glass. The very large wood-framed windows have wooden Venetian blinds and the oak laminate floor is covered in a variety of rugs in brown and white. The colour scheme is warm and autumnal(brown, white red, green and orange).

The master bedroom is cool and calm, featuring a white leather bed covered in a faux Zebra bedspread, white rugs, and an a huge art wall, featuring the owner's works. The spare bedroom (also double) is a cosy etched-glass pod (there are no windows per se).

The decor is more maximalist than minimalist.

Dimensions:

L-shaped living/dining/kitchen/studio aprox 30' by 22' (max) by 12' (min)

Main bedroom: 13' by 11'.

Guest bedroom: 7' by 11'.

Exterior

This fantastic 2nd floor apartment is one of 25 in a U-shaped, four-storey block featuring industrial steel detailing, two glass-brick-clad stairwells, lift and wood-cladding.

There is secure parking for one car or van and some off-street parking nearby, as well as a supermarket car park a few minute's walk away.

The local area is a gritty, multicultural, urban area 'on the up' with trendy areas neighbouring.

The outside of the apartment features a balcony which is a kind-of bridge to reach the front door, with a marble-topped round table, two metal chairs with cream-coloured seat cushions and an abundance of plants. There is a southern-facing urban view.

Easy access to public with tube station approx 5 mins walk from the property.
