Interior

The Building is actually a creative agency that has transformed the building into a collective interior piece from EBay - Rather collective in the nature we have approached the design, so too is the creative agency we are about. This location brings together teams best suited for a clients brief from a diverse membership of some of the most creative and strategic talent in the world. The space is made up of 3 floors available to hire for film, TV or photography projects. A: Ground floor B: First floor (AKA Meeting room/Expose brick face and wooden walls) C: Penthouse We have hosted Pop Up art galleries for William Blanchard during the Anti-Design Festival this year as well as TV commercials and music videos.
