Interior

Fabulous possibilities exist for filming at this extraordinary family home. The interior is a blend of sumptuous traditional upper middle class interior styling combined with some more modern rooms. Bedrooms are spacious (perfect for filming) and generally have retro en-suite bathrooms in varying styles.

Adjacent to the main house (with its fabulous sweeping staircase), is the "village pub" with its traditional English pub, set back from the house and making itself the perfect film set for a "northern village street"!

Exterior

Huge manicured gardens surround this fabulous Georgian manor house. The care and detail that's gone into the creation of these gardens is impressive, as are the array of features present. Fruit orchards, greenhouses/wood sheds, tennis court and the obligatory outdoor pool, help create a fabulous combination of photo shoot or filming opportunities.
