Interior

A resplendent Mediaeval chateau constructed in the twelfth and seventeenth centuries and now available as a shoot and stay film location.

There is lots of scope for filmmakers and photographers alike, as the ancient estate of 12 hectares comprises three main properties for hire and two swimming pools. The Chateau itself comprises three living rooms and seven bedrooms. The charming estate includes two other properties - a converted annexe sleeping 18 people, and a reworked pigeon house that sleeps up to five.

The Chateau emerges from 20 acres of meadows, centennial trees and wilderness. Shallow sunshine shards dapple secluded spots in the expansive gardens and desultory walks snake through the woods.

Children love our animals. We have several gambolling deer, two bossy donkeys, and two quizzical goats.

We have two swimming pools, a steam room, a secure trampoline, plus a full-size snooker table.
