Interior

Converted school, private river and jetty, vaulted double height ceilings, panoramic windows, huge rooms, multiple angles for filming, original school bell and anchor in garden 17th Century former village school with private stretch of river and fishing rights plus private jetty. 3 bedrooms, 3 bathrooms, vast original converted school hall with vaulted ceilings, very wide opening French doors and windows perfect for filming - huge stone fireplace and minstrel gallery,, panoramic windows, 25ft x 20ft beamed lounge overlooking the river with floor to ceiling windows (main bedroom identical upstairs with floor to ceiling windows), lots of quirky areas for filming, The house is right on the river with a walled garden with lawn and mature plants, seating areas. The river is tidal so there is opportunity to film on the river (fishing, paddling etc), very pretty village with a castle, stone houses of all types, very English. The house is on a road without any parking restrictions, plus large gates drive for three vehicles.. New England and antique furniture, neutral walls, plus unusual shaped windows (arch, triangle etc). Set in a picturesque village with a stunning church and castle, also close to a marina, golf course and two beaches. Mainline train station one mile. Open access to filming Year round.

Exterior

Chocolate box village, 3 pubs, two hotels, 17c church and castle, river, marina, 2 beaches and golf course,
