Interior

This period home from the 1600's features five bedrooms upstairs. Downstairs There is a large kitchen with an island and a mixture of dark blue and grey units. There is a double oven in the space where the fireplace would have been. The living room features a very large fireplace and oak walls. The dining room has a semi open plan feel and exposed beams. There is also a workout room.

Exterior

There is a large driveway leading up to the property providing ample parking spaces and filming opportunities. There is a separate two bedroomed cottage with a round jacuzzi on the patio. Several outbuildings including garages, workshops and summerhouses are spread throughout for property. Near to the main house you will find an outdoor swimming pool with a cover, this is completed by a small summerhouse and patio area. There are several other patios and lawned areas surrounding the property. Four acres of fields and stables complete the outdoor spaces.
