Interior

A brand new modern and stylish retail space and creative studio. This is a photography shop however can be used for other retail formats. It has a welcoming retail space at the front of the shop in which you enter through a door in one large glass fronted entrance. To the rear there is a studio area which could be used for multiple things including filming and podcasts. This features one wall painted green and the other in a chalkboard paint.

Exterior

This property entrance is straight from a pedestrianised street. There is one parking space that comes with the property, however other parking is available close by.
