Interior

The master bedroom has bi-folding doors inviting the river views and an en-suite shower room. The second and third bedrooms, although smaller have equally impressive views. A family bathroom completes the 1st floor.

The large upper river terrace area overlooks the 70ft river frontage, with views of the lock island and weirs. The front garden is laid to lawn with decking areas, shed and a 'home office' building with bi-folding doors to a raised decking area.
