Features:

Interior

The property consists of an entrance porch, hallway, a lovely lounge which has a front facing aspect and floor to ceiling windows looking out onto the large driveway. Then leading to the kitchen diner which has bifold doors leading out into the beautiful family garden area. The kitchen has recently been modernised with granite worktops and a black, white and gold design. Off the kitchen there is a utility room, downstairs shower room and a further reception room that has bi-folding doors and is currently used as a play room. The first floor includes three bedrooms. The master bedroom sits to the front of the property and is a lovely bright and airy room. The second and third bedrooms are well presented and currently used as children's bedrooms. There is also a recently refurbished modern family bathroom with a panelled bath and over the head shower.

Exterior

Outside to rear there is a beautiful garden space with a well presented composite decking area leading to a well maintained lawned area. The front garden is paved offering off road parking leading to a garage.
