Interior

1978 built 3 story family home now available for filming.

The property is accessed on the middle floor that also has 2 double bedrooms and a room used as a small personal fitness room.

Descend a few stairs to the living room, kitchen and a dining area. The kitchen is tiled and of average size.

Ascend the same stairs to the top floor. Here you will find a further bedroom which was converted to be a cinema room, with drop down screen and hole in the wall for the old projection system.

Outside, the property offers rolling countryside views that can be seen from every rear facing window.

The roof has solar panels, and a roof space that can easily be reached.

The property also possesses a double garage and small driveway. There is lots of parking outside the property.
