Interior

This extensive French villa has lots of original features and decorated in a high end traditional style. The hall ways are very spacious and wide leading to all the rooms downstairs. There are several living spaces all with covered fireplaces, wooden floors and some feature striking patterned wallpaper. The ceilings are tall and the windows are large and open fully, letting in lots of light and air. The kitchen features stone floors, a large island and grey/blue coloured units. The cooker is an AGA style and sits in what would have been a large fireplace. The kitchen also features a small dining table and access to the garden. The garden can also be accessed from a large bathroom with a separate shower and round double bath. There is a cellar space with beautiful ceilings. Upstairs there are several large double bedrooms, some with en-suite bathrooms. All of these are modern bathrooms or varying styles. In addition to all of the space on offer, you will also find an incredible open plan space with exposed beams and a quirky round kitchen with wooden units. This open plan space has a brickwork floor to ceiling fireplace and offers a versatile space in which to film with minimal furnishings.

Exterior

The property is set in the countryside and surrounded by fields and large trees. The front of main house is accessed by a beautiful bridge covered in plants. Throughout the grounds, you will find several patios and seating areas. One of which is a decking area leading directly from the ground floor bathroom. This decking features a sunken hot tub. There is a large outdoor swimming pool, a period style greenhouse and walled gardens on offer. The gardens are completed by a lovely large pond with a willow tree hanging over it.
