Interior

This is a large family home with a very large South facing back garden (250 feet long) and a swimming pool. The house has some lovely period features but is decorated in modern, neutral style. Four of the five bedrooms are dual aspect so there is plenty of natural light. The ceilings are almost 10 feet high throughout.

Exterior

This is a large Suburban house on a very quiet, wide residential road. The back garden is laid to lawn with mature shrubs and trees. There are also goalposts and toys for teenage children.
