Interior

From November 2011, we will be taking the theatre over and intend to make it a viable business once again. To do this fully, funds must be raised for extensive refurbishment. However, for the time being it is in full working order now, and could be a perfect location for many a photo shoot or film requiring a naturally shabby and atmospheric ambience. There are lots of spooky corners, some good natural light and plenty of space. Additional facilities include: * a bar area * a reception area * stalls * stage * rehearsal rooms * anti rooms * upper level seating
