

W6721 Three Storey Victorian Terraced Home For Filming

The property has retained all original features, including fireplaces, ceiling roses and Milton floor tiles. The home has stunning views of the bay.

W6721

Three Storey Victorian Terraced Home For Filming

The property has retained all original features, including fireplaces, ceiling roses and Milton floor tiles. The home has stunning views of the bay.

Location: Wales, United Kingdom

Within the M25: No

Categories: Period Houses | Terraced Houses | Family Modern

Features:

Interior

The views from the first floor balcony and second floor rooms look over the bay and moving tide. The views are stunning. The property has retained all original features, including fireplaces, ceiling roses and Milton floor tiles. The ground floor has a modern feel kitchen but has retained the huge fireplace and log burner. Two larger lounge rooms are on the ground floor. The first floor has a lounge with original fireplace and flooring, cornice and rose, and a log burners and newly refurbished covered balcony, with stunning views out to sea. Two other bedrooms on this floor with fireplaces and Victorian style bathroom. The top floor has original cupboards, two bedrooms and stylish bathroom built into the eaves. The house has Three log burners, 8 original Victorian fireplaces.

Exterior

Front garden has a cherry tree and fully grown rosemary hedges that line the traditional solid railings. Sea views and bay views from the bedrooms.

