

SE6916 Traditional Red Brick Detached Home For Filming

Externally there are extensive grounds with large driveway and outbuildings available for filming and video shoots

SE6916

Traditional Red Brick Detached Home For Filming

Externally there are extensive grounds with large driveway and outbuildings available for filming and video shoots

Location: Essex, United Kingdom

Within the M25: No

Categories: Detached & Executive Houses | Country Estates | Family Modern

Features:

Interior

Traditionally built red brick Grade 2 listed five double bedroom detached home. There are many traditional period features throughout this lovely characterful home which blend perfectly with the stylishly appointed modern options throughout, all finished to an extremely high standard.

Exterior

Set within wonderful grounds, entranced by secure electric gates, measuring approximately 0.49 acres. External building including a bar. Externally there are extensive grounds with a large pea shingled driveway and some feature cobblestones in front of the outbuildings for parking, the remainder being mostly laid to lawn with mature trees and shrubs including a beautiful old willow tree, a pond and a pergola.

