Interior

A generous open plan kitchen and dining area is flooded with light from the many windows. From here you can see the gardens and beyond to the sea. The kitchen units are white as is the rest of the room, the whole space has a very light and traditional beach vibe. There are separate living rooms with fireplaces. This property is unique as it incorporates converted train carriages which now features a private bar. The house has 6 bedrooms in total, three downstairs withing the converted carriages. This includes a children's bunk room. Upstairs there are three further double rooms, including a large master suite with access to a large balcony/terrace area overlooking the sea. The first floor has a pitched double heighted ceiling flooding the area with light.

Exterior

The outside space is as special as the inside and feautres many different spaces for filming. As well as the usual patio and lawned areas, there are unique features such as the bar built from an old boat, a beach side fire pit, sauna, outdoor bath and sunken hot tub. You will also find a garage and drive way for three cars.
