Interior

This large end of terrace Victorian home is spread over three levels. There are five bedrooms, three of which are en-suites, and a further bathroom. Downstairs you will find two living rooms. One is fully closed off and features a brick walled fireplace with a wood burner. The walls are paneled and the tall ceilings are completed with cornicing. The other one leads through to another room. Most of downstairs has lovely dark wooden floors in keeping the dark decor throughout the property. There is a large galley style kitchen with white high gloss units and tiled floors. This leads to a bar area, then through to the dining space which opens out to the garden. There is also a second kitchen/ utility room with dark units. Up stairs there are five bedrooms and four bedrooms. One of them is a long room with wallpapered walls and a feature ceiling. The top floor is a large master suite.

Exterior

Out the back you have two patios at either end of the garden, with a lawn in between. At the end of the garden there is a summer house with a bar and pool table. The house is situated on a quiet road over looking a golf course.
