Interior

Grade I listed Tudor house and estate, It has stunning interiors, with panelled rooms, plaster ceilings, stained glass windows and enormous fireplaces. With characterful attic and wood cellars, more modern areas mixed with traditional, it has a real variety of options.

Exterior

Imposing property set in 100 acres of formal gardens, woodland and open fields, and within the Brecon Beacons national park. From certain angles it has a formal appearance, whilst others you have a real sense of the open countryside. Adjacent to the house there are magnificent 16th century stables, an enormous, open barn, enchanting cottage, walled garden, lily pond and more, with peacocks meandering around. Because of this diversity, this film location property has a whole range of options for filming.
